

NATIONAL WOMEN'S CONFERENCE

SUNDAY MORNING SPECIALS

MUSIC HALL at 9.15 am.

PEACE AND DISARMAMENT topics will take center stage in the 3,000 seat MUSIC HALL at 9.15 Sunday morning. The Hon. Patricia Schroeder, Member of Congress serving on the House Armed Services Committee, will hear expert testimony around such themes as:

NUCLEAR WAR - THE HUMAN DIMENSION

THE ECONOMIC CONSEQUENCES OF THE ARMS RACE

WHAT DISARMAMENT POLICY FOR THE UNITED STATES?

The unofficial hearing will also feature comments from Dr. Margaret Mead, Congresswomen in attendance, citizen organization members, and an open floor discussion. Expert witnesses include:

Randall Forsberg - Researcher
Dr. Helen Caldicott - Pediatrician
Dr. Anne Cahn - U.S. Arms Control Agency
Professor Betty Lall - Author and Consultant

Information, education and legislative activities of voluntary organizations for peace and disarmament will be described in four-minute statements by Peggy Carlin, Josephine Pomerance, Ethel Taylor and Kay Camp. An audiovisual media package, based on the hearing, and sponsored by the National Commission for IWY in co-operation with the Institute for World Order, is being produced by educational communication specialists Vicki Semler and Anne Walker.

ROOM 204 at 10.00 am. - ALBERT THOMAS CONVENTION CENTER

Not unrelated, CHILD CARE will be considered from the perspective of child development specialists from FRANCE, ISRAEL, SOUTH AFRICA and SWEDEN. U.S. participants will discuss the relevance for Americans of the international experience.

The international panel will include:

Michele Berthoz - France
Olga Bandelot - France
Rivka Bar Yosef - Israel
Virginia Gcabashe - South Africa
Annika Baude - Sweden

Moderator will be Sheila Kamerman, Associate Professor of Social Work, City University of New York (CUNY)

MUSIC HALL - 9.15 am

ROOM 204 - 10 am